The following statement was entered into the record for Supervisor Yaroslavsky:

“The Auto Club Speedway, formerly the California Speedway, has long been one of Southern California’s premier auto racing attractions.

“While the Speedway itself is located in the City of Fontana in San Bernardino County, its corporate headquarters are located in Century City. The County of Los Angeles represents a tremendous audience base for the sport of auto racing, and the two largest sporting events in California occur on the Sundays when NASCAR holds its races, one around Labor Day and the other the Auto Club 500, taking place this year on Sunday, February 22, 2009.

“Auto racing is a powerful contributor to the Los Angeles region tourism industry. The NASCAR website promotes Los Angeles as the main destination for accommodations, nightlife and sightseeing, and the event partners with Metrolink from Los Angeles to Fontana.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Yaroslavsky, seconded by Supervisor Antonovich, unanimously carried, the Board proclaimed February 19, 2009 as “Auto Club Speedway Day” throughout Los Angeles County; and extended a warm welcome to all auto racing enthusiasts, and encouraged their attendance at the NASCAR Auto Club 500 on Sunday, February 22, 2009.
